GUIDELINES FOR ORGANIZING ZONAL MEETINGS OF THE INDIAN ASSOCIATION OF VETERINARY PATHOLOGISTS

1. Definition: The IAVP-central executive has a commitment to foster professional advancement by encouraging interaction, co-operation and support among IAVP-members at local, state, zonal and national levels. This document is a guideline for Zonal Secretaries for organizing meetings at zonal level.
2. Less active zone and active zones may conduct joint meetings with an aim to strengthen earlier zone.
3. Identification of Zones: At present the IAVP has six zones as approved by the 20th General Body Meeting of the IAVP
  - a. North Zone: Haryana, Himachal Pradesh, Jammu & Kashmir, Punjab, Uttar Pradesh and Uttarakhand
  - b. Central Zone: Chhattisgarh, Jarkhand and Madhya Pradesh
  - c. South Zone: Andhra Pradesh, Telangana, Karnataka, Kerala, Puducherry and Tamil Nadu
  - d. East: Bihar, West Bengal, Andaman Nicobar Islands,
  - e. North-East Zone: Arunachal Pradesh, Manipur, Meghalaya, Mizoram, Nagaland, Sikkim and Tripura
  - f. West: Goa, Gujarat, Maharashtra and Rajasthan
4. Zonal Committees: The Zonal Secretary shall be responsible for all activities at the zonal level and he/she shall act in accordance with the constitution of IAVP. For implementing activities, he/she may nominate a Zonal-Committee from among leaders of the State Units with moderate representation (in terms of number of members and geography) for all activities. The committee shall be valid with the approval of the President IAVP. The committee may operate money transactions locally, but in-consultation with the Treasurer, IAVP at the national level so that there is no conflict with the IAVP constitution.
5. Zonal Secretary: The Zonal Secretary shall be the Chairman/President of all meetings of the respective zones. He is the natural leader for all activities at the zonal level.
6. Zonal Meetings: A zonal meeting may be preferably attended by member (s) of the Central IAVP-Executive Committee as its representative. Normally, the Zonal Secretary has the liberty to invite the President, one of the Vice Presidents, Secretary General, Treasurer, Chief Editor or Web Manager to the meeting but may be intimated to the Central Executive Council (preferably to the President and the Secretary General) before the meeting. In the absence of any of these senior members, the President IAVP may depute another Zonal Secretary or any other member of the Central Executive Committee to attend the meeting. The representative of the Central Executive Committee attending a zone meeting shall be eligible for TA, DA and local hospitality charges as per the norms approved by the general body either from the National Committee or the respective Zonal Committee.

7. Venue: The venue of the meeting need not be restricted to the home-town/institution of the Zonal Secretary. It may be organized at any place/institution within the geographical jurisdiction of the zone.
8. Confidence in leadership: The Zonal Secretary may organize the meeting jointly with his employer. He should ensure the confidence of his colleagues in all stages of the meeting/function.
9. Reporting: The Zonal Secretary and the representative of the Central Council shall be jointly responsible for reporting the activities to the Central Council. They may file the report to the President or Secretary General within one week after an event/activity is completed at the zone-level. If this doesn't happen; the Zonal Secretary and the representative of the Central Executive Committee shall file individual reports to the President/Secretary General. The report shall contain the following at least the following items.
  - a. Name of the Zone:
  - b. Name of the Zonal Secretary:
  - c. Name of the representative of the Central Executive Council:
  - d. Title of programme
  - e. Date(s) of the meeting with start time and the end time:
  - f. Venue of the meeting:
  - g. Recommendations:

10. Zonal Meet Events: The Zonal Secretary is responsible for all organizational activities associated with the meetings at the zonal level. A typical Zonal-meeting has the following components which may be completed in few hours or several days.
11. Frequency of Meetings: The Zone Secretary shall arrange at least one meeting every calendar year. Depending on the local situation monthly meetings can also be considered.
12. Budget and Finance: The Zone Secretary shall be eligible for receiving a grant of up to Rs. 5000/- from the Central Executive (on production of vouchers) for a maximum of one meeting every year.
13. Zonal Committee: If, the Zonal Secretary is not claiming grants from the national committee for conducting various activities, he may have to raise sponsorship or funds from external sources. This shall be done only under the supervision of a democratically elected Zonal-committee. The committee shall have representatives from all constituent States/Units. The activities of the zone-committee shall be regulated by the President as per the provisions in the constitution of the IAVP. The Zonal-Committee may have some autonomy but will have written approval of the IAVP President stating the provisions and extent of autonomy.

14. Sponsorship and interaction with other organizations: The Zonal Chapter may interact with other professional and scientific organization in any manner without compromising the central goal/theme/objective of the national executive and the IAVP.
15. Image Building: The Zonal Secretary may take every effort to give wide publicity for its activities and project the significance of IAVP for the advancement of veterinary science and community development.
16. Identification of 'Chief Guest' and 'Guests of Honour': The representative of the IAVP-Central Executive shall be either treated as 'Chief Guest' or 'Guest of Honour'. The other person, if invited shall be a person of eminence in the field of Pathology, Veterinary Science, General Science/Technology or a socially dominant person demonstrated by his stature, position of authority or excellence in contributions to mankind.
17. Keynote Address shall be the prerogative of the 'Chief Guest' whether he is a person from within or outside the IAVP.
18. Tips for successful conduct of Zonal-Meetings
  - a. Talk to representatives of State chapters (President, Secretary and key personality of the constituent State Chapters/Units) and fix-up a tentative date for the zonal meeting at least a month before the proposed date. The tentative date is exclusively decided by the Zone Secretary considering the convenience of all parties concerned.
  - b. Contact the Central Executive and finalize the name and designation of the representative attending the meeting.
  - c. Finalize the date for the meeting and make an estimate about the number of participants and cost involved. Tentative arrangements for programme, venue, food, accommodation and other requirements may be made.
  - d. Announce this date at least two weeks in advance. Circulate the details to all state representatives and as many members in the zone through and identify the potential participants/delegates.

- (Approved by the General Body Meeting 2009; Amendment in 2016)

APPENDIX V

AWARDS of IAVP

The Indian Association of Veterinary Pathologists has instituted a number of awards. Awards are distributed to Veterinary Pathologists who have excelled in professional competence as assessed by appropriate criteria. The IAVP administers at least 6 groups of awards. Where an application is required, the last date for receiving award application is one month before the opening day of conference. The awards are listed below with respective criteria for each one of them. Please note that only Members of IAVP are eligible for the awards. Non-members if otherwise found eligible for any award, the President may consider them for special awards.

GENERAL VIEW INSTITUTION OF AWARDS

1. Under the category of ‘Award’ only those recognitions are included which are having a set selection procedure after evaluation of the achievements of the candidates by a panel of experts. At least three applicants should be there for each such Award for consideration of the panel in a particular year. If number of applicants are less than three, it should be deferred to next subsequent year when it can be considered even if two applicants are there. Single candidate cannot be considered for award in any case.
2. Each Award application will have a cover page of check list (Appendix-VI). Registration fee for young scientist group awards is Rs 100/- (For 1 Year), other awards Rs 500/- (For 3 Years) and Fellowship of IAVP Rs 1000/- ( For 3 Years).
3. “Fellowship of IAVP” should be the highest award of IAVP and it should be awarded to an esteemed pathologist (IAVP-Life Member) who is at least 45 years of age and had contributed significantly in advancement of Veterinary Pathology for at least 25 years. Once a pathologist receives Fellowship of IAVP, he/she cannot be considered for any other IAVP Award in future. However, he/she can be co-author of the work/publication for other awards of IAVP. The other criteria as mentioned in point 1 will be applicable for fellowship award too. The executive committee of IAVP may consider awarding Honorary Fellowship for an outstanding scientist (Pathologist/Non-Pathologist, Indian or foreigner) in any field of animal health. The number of Fellowships to be awarded should depend on number of applications. If 3 applicants –1 award, 4 applicants- 2 awards, 6 or more applicants-3 awards in any case, in a particular year, not more than 3 fellowships should be awarded in a specific year.

4. Every award should carry pre-fix IAVP and suffix “Year of award e.g. IAVP Best Poster Award-2016”. If in some category, more than one award is there, the IAVP award will be highest in category, followed by those sponsored by some esteemed pathologist.
5. IAVP Awards will not be instituted in the name of any family member/non-pathologists of any esteemed IAVP Life Member.
6. The President or Secretary General (on behalf of President) will constitute a 3-5 members panel for evaluating through scoring on specific proforma the applicants work or presentation as the case may be and the cumulative score given by the individual panelist will be considered for preparing merit list. These documents will be kept in IAVP records for one year for sorting out any discrepancy, if arise.
7. Each award will carry a printed certificate of the specific award having names of all the authors. The certificates will be given to each author. However, appropriate memento will be given to senior author only and the expenses will be met by IAVP or sponsored fund, as the case may be.
8. At a time IAVP members are allowed to apply for two categories of Awards to give opportunity to maximum number of life members.
9. The honorary lectures or orations given to an esteemed pathologist will be not have suffix as “Award” since it is nominated by EC keeping in view the outstanding contribution of the scientist e.g. “IAVP Dr P.P. Gupta Oration-2016”. He may be Veterinary Pathologist/Indian/foreigner. Any Life-Member IAVP wishing to institute an award in his/her name or in name of some renowned pathologist will have to donate Rs. 1,00,000/- to IAVP. The category, terms and conditions, modality of the Award, however, will be decided by
